

Do not change New Jersey's Do Not Call List. It works extremely well; telemarketing has been virtually wiped out.

Consider the rights of the citizens who do not want to be called. Why should business have the privilege to override the choice of the citizen to not be called.